Revenue Range

Revenue Range For FY2026

Note:

Purpose of Estimated or Modelled Income

Different supply chain participants like Dealerships, Distributorships, Retailers, Wholesalers etc require adequate credit limits by Principals, OEMs to grow. Information on the Proprietorship and Partnership segment is not easily available and hence do not get enough limits.

Rubix works with over 500 Corporates in various sectors in assisting them extend adequate limits to their dealers, distributorships, retailers, wholesalers by providing limits based on its expertise in credit modelling and rich database aggregated over time.

Rubix believes that limits should be based on not just it's current or past revenue but also it's revenue potential. Rubix models the revenue estimates considering multiple factors like

1. Which business line or product or service the entity is dealing with
2. Age of the company
3. Size of the market based on its location
4. Market reputation based on its web and social media presence etc

Rubix provides this as a revenue range that is useful in assigning comfortable credit limits to the supply chain partners.

It is like a compass in the domain of Trade Credit.
